Studying in the UK

A student at King's School tells us what she likes about her English course.

My name's Carmen García and I'm a student at King's School, which is a language school in Glasgow. I'm Spanish, from Madrid, but my mother is French. She's a teacher in Madrid. The students at King's School are from many different countries. I'm in a class which has students from Japan, Mexico, Germany, and Italy. It's really interesting to meet so many different people. The director of the school is British, but my teacher is American. She's from New York and her name's Helen. She's very nice and she's an excellent teacher. Her classes are always great fun. José and Karl are probably my best friends in the class. José is from Mexico and Karl is from Berlin, in Germany. We always speak English together because that's the best way to learn.

Example: Carmen is French.

Hi Maria

Do you remember me? My name's Ben Sanders, I'm twenty-nine, and I'm British. I live in a small flat in north London and I work as a secretary for a big computer company in central London. I travel to work on the underground, but I often work at home. I don't smoke, but I drink a lot of coffee!

What else can I tell you about myself? My family live in Brighton, on the south coast of England. I have one brother and one sister. My brother works as a waiter and my sister's a nurse. Their names are Harry and Liz. My parents are both teachers.

I love sport. I play football and basketball a few times a month and I watch all the best matches on TV. My favourite food is Mexican. I'm very lucky because my brother works in a Mexican restaurant, so I eat there when I visit my family. I study French and Italian in my free time because one day I want to live in France or Italy.

Please write and tell me about yourself.

How people live

As part of our weekly series, we asked Jane Hancock and Tim Greenwood to tell us about their lives.

Jane Hancock is a hardworking teacher in Sheffield. She gets up at half past six every morning and has breakfast. Then she makes her sandwiches and gets ready for work. Jane usually walks to work because she thinks it's important to take exercise every day. She sometimes walks home again in the evening, but more often gets the bus. Jane has dinner at seven o'clock and goes to bed early. She doesn't go out during the week, but she often goes out with friends at the weekend. Jane makes sure that she eats five portions of fruit and vegetables every day and fish twice a week. She hardly ever eats meat and she doesn't smoke. For more exercise, Jane goes to the gym three times a week. She's very healthy and is hardly ever ill.

Tim lives by the sea in Cardiff. He's a journalist for a local newspaper. He usually gets up at eight o'clock, has a quick shower and then drives to work. Tim doesn't have time for breakfast, but sometimes has a sandwich in the middle of the morning. At lunchtime, he usually has a burger. He buys it from the fast food restaurant across the road and then eats at his desk. Tim works long hours and often stays late in the evening. On those days, he goes to a restaurant with people from work. They usually have quite a lot of wine with their meal and they all smoke. Tim doesn't eat fruit and he doesn't like many vegetables. He plays football once a month, but he isn't very healthy.

Example: Jane gets up at _____.

A 7.00 B 6.30 C 6.00

- Jane has breakfast _____.
A at home B at school C on the bus
- She _____ to work.
A cycles B runs C walks
